

A close-up photograph of a black frog with bright yellow spots and stripes, resting on dark soil with twigs. The frog is the central focus, with its body covered in irregular yellow markings. The background is a blurred mix of dark brown soil and light brown twigs.

Healing Country Through Wolgalu/Wiradjuri led Land Management

Note: the community video played during this presentation is currently unavailable to public

